

Preliminary Subject Index to Himmler Files

This index lists only the more important material contained in the Himmler Files.

Folder No.	Subject
52	Miscellaneous personal files; most important are 52/24, concerning the status of French (Vichy) Ambassador Scapini in Berlin (August, 1942), and 52/25, concerning Quisling's visit to Berlin (April, 1943).
66	Correspondence between Himmler and SS-General Hausser.
67	Concerning the Grundstueckgesellschaft der Haupttreuhandstelle Ost (Friedrich Stein).
68	Concerning SS-General Erwin Roesner.
70	Concerning the funeral of Heydrich and miscellanea on the Heydrich family.
252	Miscellaneous reports and correspondence on partisan activities in occupied countries.
257	Concerning the Reichsstelle fuer Raumordnung.
260	Concerning the Germanische SS Division (German volunteers from various countries).
262	Concerning the German search for natural resources in occupied Ukraine.
263	Concerning the Ukrainische SS-Schuetzen-Division Galizien Nr. 1, from the time of this unit's formation.
264	Concerning Governor Renteln of Lithuania and the formation of Lithuanian volunteer units.
266	Concerning the re-settlement of evacuated Germans in Zamość (Poland) district.
272	Concerning the employment of White Russian émigrés in the German police service in Serbia.
273	Indexes to special maps on armament-important geological deposits in European Russia (Wehrgeologische Karten des Europaeischen Russland).
274-276	Concerning the recruiting of German volunteers in Hungary.
277	Scattered material on the Katyn affair.
278	Recruitment for the Waffen-SS from among the SA in Germany, from among foreign workers in Germany, and in occupied countries.
281	Concerning the Croat SS Division.
283	Bishop Hossenfelder's memorandum to Goebbels and Himmler concerning the "reform of Christianity."
284	Concerning German minorities in Denmark, Norway, Belgium, and in the Netherlands.
286	Concerning the publication of "Der Untermensch" for distribution in occupied countries (anti-Communist and anti-Semitic propaganda).
289	SS cooperation in the struggle against the "black market."
290	Concerning "Aktion Wieland", the search for new natural resources in Galicia (Poland) and the Ukraine.
291	Concerning German employers' treatment of workers from occupied eastern countries (Ostarbeiter).
292	Concerning medical experiments on concentration camp inmates (lead poisoning).
293	Concerning the problem of recompensing expropriated Poles in the General Governement.
295	Concerning improvements in the camouflaging of military objects.
300	Miscellaneous material concerning the occupation of Serbia and its administration.
301	Miscellaneous material concerning military postal service.
302	Concerning the evacuation of women and children from Berlin, 1943.
303	Concerning the Netherlands Legion (Mussert).
304	Concerning the re-Germanization of Poles ("Wieder-eindeutschungsfaeihige Polen").
306	Reports concerning the bombing and destruction of Hamburg (July, 1943).
307	Concerning the German minority in Poland and the re-Germanization of Poles (includes pamphlet, "Verpolte deutsche Familiennamen").
310	Concerning "planned vacations" and Himmler's action to prevent childlessness in the families of SS personnel (item from Folder No. 977 included in Folder No. 310). Also includes payment order for "paid vacations."
311	Concerning the "Vlaamsch National Verbond" (Belgium).
314	Concerning the SS Division composed of Germans from Hungary.
316	Concerning improvement in the diets of children borne by women workers from the eastern occupied countries (Ostarbeiter).
317	Concerning the employment of Soviet war prisoners of German ancestry in German war industry.
318	Concerning the Lettische SS-Division.
319	Concerning the re-settlement of Germans from Russia and Bessarabia.
322	List of field post addresses of SS units.
323	Concerning labor organization of youth in occupied Ukraine (includes two volumes of book by Alfred Fiedler. "Werkdienst des Reichskommissars fuer die Ukraine," Part I, 112 pp., Part II, 131 pp.).
325	Concerning changes in political attitudes and spirits in Lower Steyr; partisan activities and reprisals.
329	Concerning security regulations for SS offices.
330	Concerning the removal from important posts of SS members "with international relations."
332	Miscellaneous files; most important are: 332/22, concerning the draft of "Sicherungsstandrecht" decree which was considered just before and on July 20, 1944; 332/18, containing a short note about events of July 20, 1944; 332/13, concerning Dr. Clanberg's proposal to start experiments on a new way to produce sterility of women and a demand for concentration camp inmates for these experiments; 332/11, Himmler's speech at the convention of city mayors in Posen, February 13, 1944; 332/11, concerning the disposal of objects from "Sonderaktion Reinhard" (loot from exterminated Jews).
333	Concerning new inventions submitted to Himmler for development (in alphabetical order of names of inventors).
334	Concerning the SS-Kosaken Division (Krasnov and others).
339	Miscellaneous material concerning agriculture and the Ministry of Agriculture.
340	Concerning aid for German war prisoners in Allied countries.
341	Concerning the SS organization for construction ("Baudienststellen der Waffen-SS und Polizei"), mostly concentration camps.
342	Concerning the "Tagung der Reichsleiter und Gauleiter" in Posen and at Hitler's headquarters, October 6-7, 1943 (program and preparatory correspondence).
343	Miscellaneous material concerning the liquidation of the Warsaw ghetto (1943) and the Warsaw uprising (1944). Includes also a copy of Himmler's order for the obliteration of the ghetto.
344	Concerning the evacuation of refugees from East Prussia and Danzig (1945) and the deterioration of morale among retreating troops (1944-1945).
351	Folder, W. Treupel.
352	Folder, Dr. Donnevert.
353	Folder, Polizeigeneral Dr. W. Thomas.
354	Folder, Gauleiter Karl Weinrich.
357	Concerning the reorganization of administration