A history of the American and Allied, public and private projects in which these records were created or assembled, exploited, described, and microfilmed is to be found in: Captured German and Related Records, A National Archives Conference, ed. Robert Wolfe (Athens, Ohio: Ohio University Press, 1974) xix and 279 pp.

NATIONAL ARCHIVES COLLECTION OF SEIZED ENEMY RECORDS RECORD GROUP 242

The microfilm publications in this record group are listed below according to the place where the records were filmed. Nearly all the original paper records have been returned to their respective countries of origin. A relatively small number of these papers may have been of private origin, but the fact of their seizure is not believed to divest their original owners of any literary property rights in them. Anyone, therefore, who publishes them in whole or in part without permission may be held liable for infringement of property rights. For suggestions on citing captured German and related records, see pages 13-15 below.
